Chapter 2, Section 24. Billy and the two scouts are skinny guys. Weary, on the other hand, is so bundled up and protected that he can imagine himself safe at home telling his true war stories. The irony is that Weary is still in the middle of a war as he's imagining his war stories. Here is Weary's war story: he and his anti-tank gunner buddies fight like hell against a big German attack, but everyone is killed except for Weary.
