The creation story begins before anything exists except for God himself. In Genesis 1 , the very first chapter of the Bible, we read how God created the earth in a literal six-day period - light on the first day, the sky and air on the second day, land and plants on the third day, the sun and moon on the fourth day, birds and water animals on the fifth

The descriptions of creation in the Qur'an are not intended as dry historical accounts but rather to engage the reader in contemplating the lessons to be learned from it. The act of creation, therefore, is frequently described as a way of drawing the reader into thinking about the order of all things and the All-Knowing Creator Who is behind it all.
