In doing so it offers a glimpse of those voices that have been

silenced by the larger narrative and offers a much more complex picture of what it is to be a Tamil and a Tamilspeaking Muslim than anything offered by elites on either side of the cultural divide.

If your mother was single, then you and your siblings as well as any surviving parents (if only one parent died), will receive your mother's assets. If no parents are alive, then the estate passes in equal shares to you and your siblings. If your mother was single with children, then the estate would pass in equal shares to the children.
