There's a blogger I regularly read that I truly respect who bases his life (or so he claims) on Meditations. He claims that the Hays translation is what you have to read. I'm attaching what he says about it as an imgur image so people don't think I'm actually him posing as an anonymous person or trying to plug a friends site or something.

The paperback I received is a shoddy reprint of an archaic and unreadable pre-modern translation. The name of the translator is not given, but it is certainly not Hays. Amazon gave me a refund, but I am now unsure how to get a copy of the Hays translation in paperback. I would not chance ordering any of the editions of the Meditations on Amazon.
