Poochytown takes readers to the distant crumbling edge of the Unifactor, where the landscape's mind is either unfettered or unhinged, depending on your particular taste for mischief. What occurs there beggars description, so we will not even attempt it, but rest assured it is a dark-ride-of-the-soul as only the Frank stories can deliver.

Fran (comics) - Wikipedia

Poochytown is a course correction where Woodring removes the unnecessary character from the narrative and lets the Unifactor tell the story rather than the cartoonist forcing it into an artificial and false narrative. So if Woodring is trying to find the story that the Unifactor wants to tell, the story he discovers is one of trial and error.
