Zia is determined to go out and find her aunt and bring her back to live with other Indians in Zia by author Scott O'Dell. Because I just revisited Island of the Blue Dolphins and only learned a few days ago of this novel following it, I was curious to find out what the story of Karana's niece is all about.

Zia book by Scott O'Dell

I read this book because, of course, I love Island of the Blue Dolphins. This is a very different kind of book, and though Karana is in it, it is more historical fiction about the conditions of native people around the time of the Spanish Missions in California. It follows Zia, Karana's niece, who lives in a Mission on the coast.
